Making A Difference In Our World In Christ's Name

Operation Christmas Child

Our July items are sunglasses, jump ropes, and reusable plastic cups. Please pick up several items and put in the box in the Narthex.

Holy Communion

We will celebrate Holy Communion during our Worship Service on Sunday, July 3. Please be present as we gather around the Lord's Table to remember Christ's death on the cross for our sins.

Eyeglasses

Do not forget there is a receptacle in the Narthex for used eyeglasses. Please put any old glasses you have into the box, and they will go to the Lion's Club.

Church Council Meeting

The Church Council will meet on Sunday evening, July 31 at 7:00 in the Fellowship Building. All Council members are encouraged to be present for we cannot hold a legal meeting without a quorum.

News from the Hurley Jones Library

We have added new books to the library in the last month. The titles are You Were Made for This Moment by Max Lucado, Beautiful In God's Eyes for Young Women by Elizabeth George, The Wow of God's Word by Edwina "Winnie" Willus (Winnie is a Member of Shallow Well Church), Real Roatan by Edwina "Winnie" Willus, and Rainbows to Remind Us by Edwina "Winnie" Willus. Children's Books: God's Not Dead 2 by Travis Trasher and Heaven Is for Real by Todd Burpo. Two children's patriotic books: The Impossible Patriotism Project written by Linda Skeers, Tuesday Tucks Me In by Luis Carlos Montalvan. All of these books are on display in the library for your convenience. Our Author Spotlight for this month is Terri Blackstock. Terri is an award winning, Christian suspense novelist. In 1994 she was writing for the secular market, when a spiritual awakening drew her into the Christian market. Since that time, she has written many Christian titles. You will find many of her titles in the Adult fiction section of the Hurley Jones Library. A favorite is the Restoration Series: Last Light, Night Light, True Light, and Dawn's light. Come by the Library and check these out.

Greetings Church Family,

I write to you from hot and muggy Montgomery, Alabama, where I serve our God and country with the U.S. Air Force. Since I am now in full military mode, I thought it would be appropriate to share our mission here at the Air Force Chaplain Corps College on Maxwell Air Force Base. We train Air Force Chaplains so they will be able to provide and provide for religious accommodation for Air Force personnel and their families. We have various courses to suit the experience level of each Chaplain, from the tactical (basic) level to the strategic (advanced) level. Our staff has some of the most experienced and educated Chaplains in the entire Air Force. This high-level staff ensures each student gets the best training possible. Religious freedom is something that we must not take for granted. Some people and groups want to strip away the freedom we enjoy in worshipping King Jesus and practicing our faith in Him. Therefore, I ask that you pray for our military, particularly those of the faith once for all delivered to the saints (Jude 3), that they can live out their faith without fear of disciplinary action. Also, pray for our country, as we are seemingly further from God than ever. Peter makes it very clear what awaits those who respect Him and those who reject Him: But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief . . ." (2 Peter 3:8-10a). I look forward to seeing you again soon.

God bless you all!
