Outreach

When a young adult moves away from their home and family for college or work, it is an exciting time. However, it is also a time for them to learn how to navigate being an adult. These young adults need our prayers and well wishes more than ever!

We are fortunate to have many young adults that are a part of our church family but may not be able to come worship with us weekly. We are hoping that you can find it in your heart to reach out with a card, letter, or small care package to these young adults to remind them they are loved and still being prayed for by their Shallow Well Church family.

If you have any questions or would like to add someone to the list, feel free to contact me. Thanks so much for your help with this ministry! Beth Haas

Greetings, Shallow Well Family,

In Isaiah 55:8, God says, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD" (ESV). His ways are better because He is God, and we are not. Last year, I dreamed of a revival service at our church. Due to circumstances unknown to me at the time, God shut that door. However, he opened another one when I was asked by Rev. Robert Thomas to preach the revival services at First Congregational Christian Church of Sanford. I was humbled to be asked, and it made me think of Isaiah 55:8; there will be revival services, just not as I had thought. Praise the Lord!

If possible, I ask that you plan to attend the services on the 8th, 15th, and 22nd of October at 6:00 p.m. We will explore one of the most exciting and essential texts in the New Testament, the Olivet Discourse, according to Matthew's gospel (Matthew 24). Also, please consider inviting your family and friends (especially the unchurched/unsaved). Please pray that many decisions for Christ will come to fruition and for the saints at 1CCC as they prepare for this tremendous opportunity. Finally, I ask you to pray for me to rightly divide the Word of God.

Sharon and I are so very grateful for you, and we are blessed to be a part of the SWC family.

In Christ,

Eric
